

21 March 2014

Dear Customer,

The Eton Distribution Scheme Interim Board has finalised its draft Business Proposal for transition to Local Management. Enclosed is a Summary of the draft Business Proposal for consultation with water users.

The Summary of the Business Proposal discusses:

- Corporate Form
- Savings
- Financial Modelling
- Service Standard

Also enclosed are sample Questions & Answers from the Interim Board.

Meetings will be held on Thursday, 3rd April 2014 with water users for further discussion and to assess support for the Business Proposal to transition to Local Management of the Eton Distribution Scheme.

Adam Keilbach's Shed 10.00 am To be followed by BBQ and refreshments
1094 Sarina-Homebush Road

North Eton CWA Hall 6.30 pm To be followed by BBQ and refreshments
North Eton

If you are unable to attend, please contact one of the interim board members on the numbers listed in the enclosed proposal to express your view. The consultation process will finalise on 10th April 2014 before the Business Proposal is submitted to the Queensland Government for consideration.

Your attendance at one of the above meetings is very important so that the Interim Board may answer any of your concerns and assess your support to transition to Local Management.

Yours sincerely

Geoffrey Kavanagh
Chairman
